

Amanda Adams

Colorguard Instructor

Amanda has been involved in colorguard for what is going on to be 8 years now. She marched at Moorpark High School for 4 years, Guard Captain her senior year. She also marched in the 2004 Rose Parade with the Pasadena City College Honor Band and Colorguard. Amanda then proceeded onto the Black Knights winterguard where she marched as a final cast member in the last year of the Black Knights appearances. She marched in the Mystikal Drum and Bugle corps in 2005 and then in Impulse Drum and Bugle Corps in 2006 where she received a gold medal in the DCI finals event.

Amanda also became one of the first cast members of a brand new open class colorguard called DIAMANTE in 2006. Amanda is still involved with DIAMANTE and this will be her third year marching in the DIAMANTE cast. This is Amanda's second year teaching at Moorpark High School and she is very glad to be working with this team. She is currently attending Moorpark College and majoring in the field of Psychology.
