

Daniel Cook
Assistant Director of Bands
Staff Coordinator
Visual Caption Head
Brass Instructor

Daniel Cook is an Alumni of Moorpark High School graduating in 2004. He attended Mt. San Antonio College his first year studying music under the guidance of Jason Chevalier, Dr. Lori Stuntz, and Jeff Elwood. He then attended Riverside Community College where he studied music under Kevin Mayse, Charlie Richard, and Dr. Steve Smith. Now he is currently attending Moorpark College as a Music Education Major.

Daniel's marching experience goes far beyond the 4 years spent at Moorpark High School. He also competed in Division one Drum Corps as he marched Contra for 4 years with Pacific Crest Drum and Bugle Corps. He was a 3 time Eugene Rothstein Scholarship recipient as a part of the corps.

His teaching experience includes brass, visual and private instruction at schools such as: Yucaipa High School, Azusa High School, Rubidoux High School, Chino High School, Rio Mesa High School, Royal High School and this is his third year with Moorpark High School as an educator. He is currently a member of the Lane 29 Jazz Orchestra who is led by our own Mike Gangemi.