

David Rosenfeld
Woodwind Instructor
Marching Instructor

David Rosenfeld is a 2006 graduate of Westlake High School, where he spent all four years marching with the Westlake Regiment. He was the winner of the program's Louis Armstrong jazz award, as well as the 2005-2006 WHS Instrumental Music Department Student of the Year. He has nine years of playing experience, at one point studying privately under Mesa Verde's own Samantha Blake, as well as participating in the LA Jazz Society's Bill Green Mentorship Program. David briefly attended California State University, Northridge as a Jazz Studies major, studying jazz saxophone under LA-area studio saxophonist Rob Lockhart. He is currently a member of The Lane 29 Jazz Orchestra playing Tenor Saxophone. This is David's second year as a woodwind/marching instructor at Moorpark High School. He also helps teach the Colina Middle School Jazz 'A' Band with our own Mike Gangemi. David is currently a student at Moorpark College.
